

Livvie Owen Lived Here

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Livvie Owen collects real estate ads. Pretend that your school is vacant and has to be listed for sale in the local newspaper. Using community interviews, old yearbooks and newspapers, courthouse records, the Internet, and your own observations, write a real estate ad that describes your school. Include the number of classrooms, restrooms, storage closets, etc., the acreage of the property, and the age and history of the building. Then draw a detailed floor plan of the property outlining features for potential buyers.

Data Collection

Name of Building: _____

Year built: _____

Acreage of property: _____

Number of classrooms: _____

Number of restrooms: _____

Number of storage closets: _____

Other amenities (cafeteria, gym, etc.): _____

History: (Ex. - Originally part of the local college, designated fall-out shelter, vacant from 1981 - 1985, etc.) _____

